

Heavenly Father,

Before your Son sent his disciples to prepare villages for his arrival, he informed them that “The harvest is abundant, but the laborers are few...”

May our participation in the Annual Seminaries’ Appeal answer Christ’s call to send laborers into the field by forming seminarians to serve as tomorrow’s priests. Open our hearts to the profound joys that come when promoting the priestly ministry.

We ask this in Jesus’ name.

Amen.